USPA NEWS - "I salute the memory of Helmut Schmidt, who embodied the European ambition & the strength of the Franco-German friendship for over half a century. His courageous choices have always placed throughout his terms as Chancellor of the Federal Republic of Germany to the forefront of European construction

"I salute the memory of Helmut Schmidt, who embodied the European ambition and the strength of the Franco-German friendship for over half a century. His courageous choices have always placed throughout his terms as Chancellor of the Federal Republic of Germany to the forefront of European construction: architect of a political Europe, a Europe of rights Man with the Helsinki Conference, a Europe of solidarity with the Lomé Agreements, he also laid the foundation, along with Valéry Giscard d'Estaing, President of the French Republic, the single currency with the System European Monetary. His work was marked by his commitment to the great European ideals of freedom, openness and dialogue. Thinker and visionary player in Europe, he fed it to the same ambition for his country. France loses a friend, Europe one of its architects. All my thoughts are with his family, his relatives and to the German people." Stated French Secretary of State for European Affairs, Harlem Desir as a tribute to the builder of French-German Friendship.-----
