We Trust And Believe In You To Ensure The Best

School Children To Environment Minister

New Delhi, India, 28.11.2015, 17:57 Time

USPA NEWS - A group of select school children presenting a symbolic Globe as best wishes, to the Minister of State for Environment, Forest and Climate Change, Mr. Prakash Javadekar.

World Needs To Allow Development Space And Growth Space To Developing Countries Like India: Javadekar

In a unique gesture, around 50 school children extended good wishes to the Indian delegation for Conference of Parties (COP21) “the global climate conference on November 27. The children presented a symbolic “Globe” to the Environment Minister, who is heading the delegation for Paris with the message, “We Trust and Believe in You to ensure the Best”.

Speaking on the occasion, Union Minister of Environment, Forest and Climate Change, Mr. Prakash Javadekar, said that India is going to Paris with a progressive and a constructive approach. “The world needs to allow development space and growth space to developing countries like India. If we grow, justice will be delivered to the poor. If we grow, the market and world economy will grow and to that end, there will be more accommodation for the developing world in Paris”, he said.

The Minister added that we are hopeful that there will be a “just and an equitable” agreement in Paris. He emphasized that India has taken positive steps under the leadership of the Prime Minister Modi, not only in renewable energy, but in clean environment, clean energy, clean water, clean air and more green. The Minister also said that the world has appreciated India’s Intended Nationally Determined Contribution (INDC).

The Minister also told the children that the world must assure the younger generation that the world will be proposing those changes that are needed to ensure balanced growth and a balanced environment.

COP21 will start in Paris from November 30-December 11, 2015. The objective of the Paris Conference is to achieve a legally binding and universal agreement on climate, from all nations of the world.
